This is a special discounted room rate, especially quoted for this event. Unfortunately, due to the nature of the discount, national promotional programs advertised with Holiday Inn do not apply. For example, guests taking advantage of this special group rate do not qualify for "Kids Eat Free" in our dining room.

The hotel enforces a house curfew of 11:00pm. After that time, only registered guests shall be permitted in overnight rooms and all youths must be quiet and settled for the night. For safety, security and over all well-being, youths are not to be wandering the hotel unattended by adults. While we do not anticipate any disturbances, we will contact the adult / parent and / or the group leader to assist us with the situation. Thank you in advance for your cooperation.
